

The Stainless Steel Aqua Lounges , Allure and Aqualounge , Ur'bain® expose the "Maison & Objet Paris" on the stand "Carré Bleu".

It is the stand of the brand CARRE BLEU, distributing its products, present Ur'bain® from 4 to 8 September 2015 on the show "Maison & Objet Paris" two stainless steel aqua lounges , Allure and Aqualounge , and all new technological innovations.

Meet a spa, mini-pool and high-end furniture to customizable and contemporary design, the stainless steel aqua lounge is defined primarily as a place of life and exchange. He moved to the outside and inside so that everyone takes full advantage of the fun and benefits of water, undisturbed.

An assembly on-site, while avoiding the construction phase of a high annoyance traditional swimming pool, an access having a free passage of 80 cm is enough.

Noble materials, meticulous finish, ingenious method for installing... aqua lounges Allure and Aqualounge - preferred by professionals and the general public - innovate and captivate .

Their technical and aesthetic characteristics make it an exception that innovative equipment finds its place in the universe "Carré Bleu" .
